

“Moving Forward” Witnessing Victim’s Resistance to Violence Dr. Allan Wade Ph.D

Join Us! For a 2 day workshop in Response Based Training.

About the workshop This workshop will present current research on violence, trauma, language and social responses in cases of violence. Participants will learn gentle, straight forward and effective interviewing skills for honouring victims’ responses and resistance to violence, identifying offenders’ pre-existing ability to act respectfully, and promoting positive social responses

Who should attend Witnessing Victims’ Resistance to Violence and Oppression’ is for human service workers — counsellors, therapists, nurses, physicians, justice and court workers, Crown counsel, lawyers, victims’ services workers, transition house workers, shelter staff, women’s advocates, social workers, child protection workers, police, journalists, researchers — and anyone in the role of helping others, particularly those who have experienced violence, mistreatment or other forms of violation. Certificates provided upon completion of both days.
